

POST CONVERGENCE SITE VISITS
Venue	Host	Address and description	Contact	Time for visit
North/North West
Red Cow Diary	Andy and Matt Jackman	249 Lowries Rd, Oldina 300 red cows on 155 hectare farm run using sustainable farming practices.	0439 366 349	Tour on Friday 13th 11am – 12pm
Devonport garden	Robert and Eileen Millet	150 Madden St, Devonport. Amazing small suburban garden packed with food plants.	(03) 6423 5783	Sun 15 th , Mon 16 th 1-3 pm Max 20/day Other times by arrangement
Blue Penguin Wines	Marji and Alan Irish/ Davide and Larna Pittiglio	10 Revell Lane, Penguin Sustainable boutique winery, wine tastings	0448 959 044	Tues 17th for guided tours People may visit informally on other days, ring first please.

Cradle Coast Farmers' Market		At The Wharf in Ulverstone. Fresh local produce farmed, baked, bottled or dug from the ground.		Every Sunday @ 8.30am to 12.30pm
Gallinulla studio and farm	Carolyn and Richard Donaghey, Kim Kerze	80 Sawards Rd, Myalla Tour and straw bale building working bee on 40 acres of agricultural land in the process of transformation into a bird haven, restored remnant rainforest, budding food forest, pademelon breeding ground, swamp forest, and food garden – all guided by the loving and dedicated hands of Richard and Carolyn	(03) 6445 1025 0448 541 000	Catch up with Carolyn, Richard or Kim at the Convergence to arrange

Produce to the People	Penelope Dodd	The Farm, Burnie High School Fidler Street, Cooe School and community garden, part of the Produce to the People project.	0409 484 152	Every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday 10.30 - 2.30
The Tarkine		In Tasmania's NW corner is one of the world's great wild places. A 447,000 hectare wilderness area of recognised World Heritage value, the Tarkine contains remarkable natural and cultural values, including one of the world's most significant remaining tracts of temperate rainforest.		Self-guided, pick up brochure at Convergence desk

South
Tiger Hill Permaculture	Paul Kean	951 Sand River Road Buckland. Tiger Hill Permaculture is a 70 acre farm set amongst crown land and mixed forestry. Our vision is to create a working family farm and educational community to demonstrate self reliance and sustainability via permaculture design and holistic farming.	0433 322 814 03 62575128 www.tigerhillpermaculture.net Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/tigerhillpermaculture	13th and 14th March. Ring first please.
Whistlers Ridge Permaculture	Celia Leverton	131 Braeside Rd, Franklin (2.4 km south of Franklin, turn up onto Braeside Rd, 1.1km on left). 15 acres overlooking the Huon River. Developing the old orchard into a financially secure and sustainable farm.	0429 931 640 celia.leverton@gmail.com	Any day between Mon 16th and Fri 20th. Ring first please.

Various sites around Hobart and Bruny Island	Mike Thomas (3 sites – work in progress)	1. 29 York St, Sandy Bay, Hobart: transformed permaculture garden utilising space maximally 2. 14 Nierinna Rd, Margate: 1 hectare in Margate (20 min from town) with geese, ducks and chickens under nuts and orchards, dam swales, windmill and much more 3. Other projects under construction: D'entrecasteaux Drive, Apollo Drive, Bruny island - maritime / bush, olive plantation on swales	0408 472 921	1pm at 29 York St, 18th and 19th March.